* Difference between 2021 winner & Foxrock Tidy Towns results

Sincere thanks to the many volunteers who gave so much time this year, 2021 definitely represented the best year for community involvement since FTT's first entry in 2010.

Resulting from the excellent engagement this year, it was agreed that the area is divided into four with Road Rangers overseeing each one. The FTT Committee and Road Rangers are due to meet within the next few weeks and more details will follow with a plan to ensure that we have activities all year round.

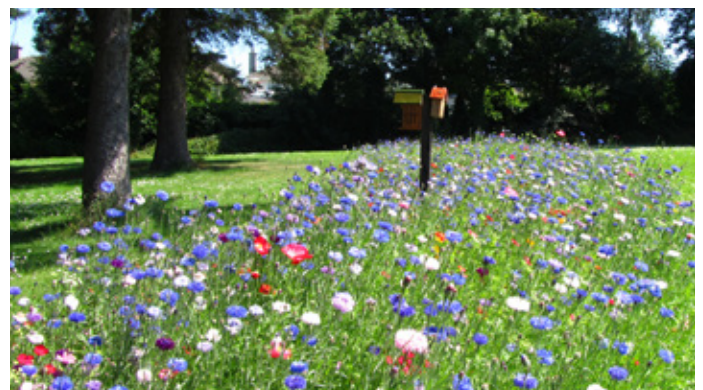

When we have our strategy finalised, we hope you will all continue to support our efforts to keep the area looking its best at all times and, hopefully, to gain even further points in 2022!

AND IMPROVE THE LOCAL ENVIRONMENT AND ATTRACTIVE PLACE TO LIVE, WORK AND VISIT.

Tullow Church of Ireland, Brighton Road

A Church at the Heart of the Community

Tullow is an active, vibrant parish where the doors are open to all and everyone is welcome. Normally the Christmas season is busy with Carols by Candlelight, services for children, as well as those on Christmas Eve and Christmas Day. This year it is a bit uncertain and details may not be finalised for a few more weeks. In the meantime keep an eye on www.tullowdublin.org or Tullow Parish on Facebook. Online services are available on the parish website also.

The Parish Hall is in constant use with activities ranging from a playschool to drama classes for children to badminton, bowling and much more.

Beckett in Foxrock

Samuel Beckett, one of the greatest writers of the 20th century and a Nobel Prize winner for Literature, was born and brought up in Foxrock - where the people and places of south Dublin hugely influenced him and his work.

This is your opportunity to know more about him and experience one of his works. In an online double bill for Beckett in Foxrock well-known actor Marcus Lamb performs The End, a darkly funny tale which is complemented by The Beckett Country. Beautifully filmed in sunny Dublin, interpreted and narrated by Dr Feargal Whelan, The Beckett Country, takes us to the places in Dublin which so influenced Beckett - from his birthplace in Foxrock to Tullow Church which he attended with his mother, to Trinity College and Carrickmines Golf Club where he mentally replayed the first four holes when, in later life, he couldn't sleep.

Beckett in Foxrock 2021 is the fifth annual event honouring the writer's close connection with the Foxrock area. Samuel Beckett, Nobel Laureate, was a regular attender, along with his mother, at Tullow Church, the usual venue for previous Beckett in Foxrock live performances.

Tickets for this online only production are €10.00 and are now on sale on takeyourseats.ie Search for Beckett in Foxrock. Tickets only available from now until 30th November and, once purchased, are valid for 48 hours.

Beckett in Foxrock 2021 is organised by Tullow Parish and Mouth on Fire Theatre Company in association with Foxrock Area Community and Enterprise (FACE) with the support of Dún Laoghaire-Rathdown County Council and Hunters Estate Agent.

Lighting Up Foxrock Village

This year the Christmas lights in the village have been enhanced by our two striking Santas which have been attracting a lot of photos and attention from young and old.

Thanks to Dún Laoghaire-Rathdown County Council for the grant which has enabled us to light up the village in such a spectacular way. Thanks also to Fantasy Lights who supported us on this project.
